

INDIANA BICYCLE TO WORK DAY

Friday, May 16th 2003

At the request of Indiana Bicycle Coalition, Governor Frank O'Bannon has proclaimed Indiana Bicycle to Work Week for May 11 - 17, 2003. Indiana Bicycle Coalition is promoting bicycling for transportation and is planning a full day of activities on Indiana Bicycle to Work Day, Friday May 16th, 2003 at the Indiana State Government office complex in downtown Indianapolis.

Friday, May 16th Events

- Cyclists will be conducting Bicycle to Work Day group commuting rides from at least four locations around Indianapolis on Friday, May 16th. Information such as planned routes, detailed maps, meeting times and approximate mileage for the rides are supplied on the Indiana Bicycle Coalition website (www.bicycleindiana.org).
- Bicycle Parking Corral from 6:30 am - 5:30 pm. Bicycles will be stored and monitored free of charge for the stated hours.
- Mini-demonstrations of bicycle repairs and tips for bicycle commuting between 11:00 am and 1:00 pm at the Indiana government offices.
- Press conference at 12:00 noon, celebrating Indiana Bicycle to Work Week and recognition of those who participated in Bicycle to Work Day.
- Friendly ride competition between leaders and employees of at least five state agencies including INDOT, DNR, IDEM, Indiana Arts Commission, and the Governors Council for Physical Fitness and Sports (at press time). Sign-up sheets are available on the Indiana Bicycle Coalition website (www.bicycleindiana.org)

For more information regarding Indiana Bicycle to Work Week and bicycling in Indiana, please contact Indiana Bicycle Coalition at:

Phone: (317)-466-9701 or (800)-BIKE-110 Fax: (317)-466-9705
Website: www.bicycleindiana.org Email: info@bicycleindiana.org